

FYNCH-HATTON

Welcome to authentic style! Since its establishment in 1998 Fynch-Hatton is all about dedication.

Dedication to Denys Finch Hatton, whose free and adventurous life in the Serengeti influenced our brand as well as our logo and our philosophy. From dedication to zeitgeist and authenticity, with clothes that are always at ease and show character. Dedication to highest quality, craftsmanship, and details in every collection, and dedication to those, who wear them. Wherever you go, whatever you do, we think it should happen in style.

Because style is a statement.
