

ARAM LEE

Aram Lee's transformable designs are inspired by origami and allow for size adjustments. 'Hana' can shrink from a big laptop case down to a medium everyday bag and can even be made into a small evening pouch, 'Mari' can be transformed from a backpack into a fun geometric bag as well as a large multi-purpose tote through a few manipulations of the folds and clips. The pieces are made from butter-soft leather and feature high quality zippers.

OLIVIER BERNOUX

To commemorate the 50th anniversary of the launch of Robert F. Kennedy's Human Rights Foundation, Olivier Bernoux, known in the industry primarily for his show-stopping fans favored by celebrities, teamed up with the Kennedy family to create a capsule collection of clutches and fans featuring memorable messages inspired by the Senator's speeches: 'Ripples of Hope', 'Truth to Power', 'Why Not', 'Hope', 'Dare', 'Dream'. RFK's signature has been engraved on the last letter of the last word in each sentence.

VALEXTRA X BETHAN LAURA WOOD

Milanese brand Valextra celebrates its 80th anniversary with 'Toothpaste', limited edition bags created in collaboration with the award-winning artist and industrial designer Bethan Laura Wood. The abundance of color and the rigorous approach to shapes came as no surprise once Wood revealed the inspiration behind her designs: the work of British artist Eduardo Paolozzi, whose surreal structures and saturated palettes were precursors to the Pop movement.

A. CLARA BOSTON

Businesswoman Annemarie Childs founded the label a. Clara Boston after a family trip to Portugal, where she discovered cork bags. All the designs in her collection are made of this soft and supple material, designed by a Portuguese leather craftsman with over 20 years of couture house experience. The label only uses high-quality cork, which is durable, water-resistant, antimicrobial and eco-friendly. The bags come in different colors and feature leather and metal details.
